About CES

Centre for European Studies (CES) was established by the Chulalongkorn University Council in October 1997, after successful conclusion of the Chulalongkorn University European Studies Programme (CUESP), supported by the European Commission (1993-1999). Functioning as national institution promoting the study of Europe in Thailand, CES aims to be;

1. Centre of academic excellence in European Studies in Thailand and ASEAN;
2. Centre creating new knowledge in the field of European studies in Asia.

Research Section of Centre for European Studies

Centre for European Studies, Chulalongkorn University aims to be the professional centre which provides the information towards Europe and European Studies in 4 main subjects as follows; Economic, Law, Political Science and Humanity. The Research Section, which was set up, is to support and urge the researchers to do the research in European Studies in Thailand. The Research Section will grant 4 scholars, 40,000 Baht each for 6-month-intensive research by setting up the competition.
